

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO GET TO KNOW SOMEONE

How much time are you willing to spend with someone

Can a conversation make a friend

Afterwards will you ever talk to them again

Will you just remember them and smile a good thought

When you meet someone new will you remember the last new person you met and spend more time

If you meet a new person and don't care for them will you remember old new people and be more forgiving

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO GET TO KNOW PEOPLE

If you work with a group of different people from all backgrounds and get to know something about each will you choose to stay friends with all or a few or one

Will any of them stay friends with you

Does doing things for them or going out with them or letting them tell their tale of concerns constitute a friendship

Does that let you know someone or some people

When does getting to know people make a difference in your life

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO GET TO KNOW A CULTURE

How far are you willing to immerse yourself in someone else's culture

How much do you want to know

Can you respect someone else's ways of doing things especially if their ways seem much more complicated

What about the time to create? What about time to nurture?
